I am going to kill immigration reform in the most productive way this summer. y'all have seen nothing just yet.

July 27, 2013 (LVG in NYC)

Showdown in NY, don't ever get between a mom and her kid, even if you are a member of congress. I be scurred for you mr. Gutierrez

July 25, 2013

Starting today i am limiting my white friends. I see the light and it is too bright.

Last year we/i had the unfortunate job of removing some organizations from the niya cause they just didn't represent our values, it seems this year we might have to do the same with the immigrant rights movement as a whole.

Mohammad Abdollahi I dont want your help. We dont need your help. You are collectively useless, and you are the reason why 10 years later there is no cir. Useless. Dumb. Fucks.

Mohammad Abdollahi Typical white people shit, once again. None of you have any agency to speak. This is hilarious. Invite all your staffers, when did you think we started giving one fuck about that? Until you are on the other side of the fence your opinion is meaningless, speak whatever garbage you want, this is Amerikkka afterall, its still meaningless.

Until you are in the shoes of claudia, ceferino, maria, and the rest of em you have zero agency. Zero.

Mohammad Abdollahi I would tell you to fuck off because again you have no fucking clue what its like living in fear everyday and desperate to come back home. Stop trying to get some agency and have an opinion. Realize people in the situation can do that and you either support or shut the fuck up, or come off looking like a piece of shit.

Mohammad Abdollahi ...My point is if you arent undocumented and living in a different country separated from your family then it isnt your place to say what is too much and what is too little. You have no agency to speak. You dont know what its like to be deported, to be forced to leave. It isnt your space to judge whether someone thinks its worth it to come back or not.
